President's Column

By Jim Constantine

GOOD MANAGEMENT CAN LEAD TO LOWER SKI TRIP PRICES

As we fulfill IRS requirements of 'social co-mingling' and required membership (rather than 'doing business with the general public'), Tulsa Ski Club can attract new members by promoting or advertising trips. We would not be able to continue providing snow skiing and social opportunities very long without new members.

For the past three years that I have been on the board of directors, our board has had successful ski trip programs resulting in positive revenue.

This good management should lead to lower ski trip prices or less crowded buses next year because we need not accumulate cash beyond our annual needs. Better trips and pricing should attract new members, and that is the life blood of our ski club's future.

Again this year our ski trips are almost completely full. Thanks to steadfast promotion by Bruce Dawson, our Winter Trip Chairman and First Vice-President, we have not needed to cancel any trips.

Another reason our trips have topped off is because of our excellent website. Bruce and Dana Gray have kept it updated weekly. People are turning more and more to computers and websites as sources of information. Our TulsaSkiClub.com website is a great tool to promote ski trips, and thus, attract new members. In fact, Robert Foster, Membership Chairman, reported 42 new members during December alone.

Telephone hot lines and yellow pages are becoming a thing of the past, as many young people now seem to 'Google' for information.

At our next General Meeting, Tuesday, January 8th, we will select seven people for the nominating committee. This committee, in turn, will nominate our new board members for next year.

Please volunteer to serve for one of fourteen board member positions. It helps give back to the club that which has brought you fun and friendships. Our board meetings currently last only one or two hours each month.

$35 gift certificate to be given away at January 8 General Meeting!!!

Note about Holiday Party

from John Hill

I've just belonged to the club for a few years and have only been to a few Christmas parties. My wife and I attended last night's party and I have to say that it was the best we've attended. The location was good, especially considering that it had to be changed at the last minute. The hall was just the right size for the crowd! The ski-boot decorations were very creative. The band was great. The food was great. The bar prices were very reasonable. The crowd was in a good mood and we all had a great time. We should all give a special thanks to Social Chair JoAnn Huber and her crew of volunteers for all their work in making last night's event such a special occasion!

Park City/ Deer Valley Ski Trip

Our Park City skiers gathered at the Frontier Tulsa Ticket counter at 5:30am on Wednesday leaving behind loved ones to struggle through the weather and power outages that gripped Tulsa. Our first mishap came when the agent reissued Jim Constantine's boarding pass under the wrong name of Mike Jones, and Jim went through two pictured ID check points before finally being caught at the screening machine.

The group arrived at Park Station Condos about noon for a FREE half day of skiing. James' brother, Calvin, traveled from Virginia and met the group at the Salt Lake City airport. Before Jim got his luggage in the room, Bill Obermark was changed and waiting anxiously in the lobby for others to ski. James, Jim and Calvin headed off to Deer Valley to pick up the lift tickets for the group and scope out the mountain. Regina Mullings, Jan Bartek, and Colleen Williams were seen strolling to downtown Park City for an afternoon of shopping and sightseeing. Lowell Whitlock skied Park City with the four Bill's (Millis, Fesler, Obermark and Wright).

The group met at the Pig Pen Saloon for après' skiing drinking and dining where we were treated to free drinks, appetizers, hot sandwich and a Jolly Rancher shot by the establishment. The only mishap of the day was a fall suffered by Calvin Carpenter at Deer Valley. Unfortunately he landed on his shoulder and not his hard head thus suffering a Type III (both ligaments severed) shoulder separation.

The group woke up Thursday morning to new snow and the anticipation of skiing Deer Valley with eleven new runs opened. Jerry Bush was sidelined with a swollen ankle from a previous injury and spent most of the trip relaxing. Rick Hiskett was joined by a friend from Los Cabos so, understandably, he spent most of his time with her. At noon, Bill Fesler, Bill Millis and Lowell Whitlock skied to the base area for lunch while Bruce Dawson, Bill Obermark, Trey Sophy, Calvin Carpenter, James Carpenter, Jim Constantine, Mike Jones, Michael Buedden, Colleen Williams, Bill Wright, Jan Bartek, Regina Mullings, Jane Meyers and Phil Boushon enjoyed fine dining at Stein Erickson's Lodge. Jim set the record for lunch with a $70+ tab.

Mike Jones spent two mornings in Salt Lake City getting new foot beds from a renowned boot doctor.

Thursday night a group of us went to the Pizza & Noodles Restaurant in downtown Park City. Mike Jones and Bill Obermark ordered the rotisserie chicken which apparently had spent way too much time in the kitchen and had ripened.

Bill Millis, Lowell Whitlock, and Bill Fesler skied the Canyons on Friday while the rest of the group went to Park City and Deer Valley. Carolyn Fesler enjoyed her stay at Park City shopping and dining. David Marshall, Jim's friend, joined James Carpenter, Colleen Williams and Bill Obermark for a fun day of skiing at Park City. Bill Wright joined the group at lunch and skied the afternoon with us.

Because most of the group could not keep up with Trey Sophy, he skied by himself the duration of the trip. It was reported that Trey was setting the blue runs on fire because of his speed and skiing the mogul runs like a pro.

Friday après skiing found another group of us at the Pig Pen Saloon for more appetizers and drinks.

Jane Meyer toured a local condo as a perspective buyer and received $150 cash and two bottles of wine.

The group awoke Saturday to more new snow and a fun day full of adventures for all. Regina Mullings took cross country ski lessons while Jane Meyer, Phil Boushon, and Colleen Williams skied Deer Valley. Trey Sophy's newly purchased skis did not arrive on time so he had to rent skis for the trip. Bill Wright and Jan Bartek spent the afternoon shopping.

Mike Jones was encouraged by James Carpenter to ski down McConkey's Bowl. After struggling down Mike exclaimed that the run "was way too steep to be a black" only to be informed it was a double black run. Mike's next comment cannot be repeated.

The highlight of the trip was the gumbo feast purchased by Regina Mullings and prepared by Chef Lowell Witlock and accompanied by Sous Chefs Bill Millis, Bill Fesler and Carolyn Fesler. The majority of the group enjoyed a fabulous meal of gumbo with rice, great conversation, and the last of Bill Millis' incredible lemon squares. The evening was topped off with a very competitive game of "Oh Hell" with Colleen Williams proving to be very competitive.

The final mishap of the trip was the cancelled flight in Denver. The group was given meal vouchers and a $150 flight voucher and expecting a long wait to the 9:15pm flight. The flight was re-instated shortly there after causing the Tulsa Ski Club group to scramble to find everyone. Of the seventy people that should have been on the flight, only twenty-three made it with all eighteen of our group on board thanks to a select few well placed phone calls and announcements. The flight attendants did give complimentary beverages to everyone on the flight thanks to Bill Fesler's idea to donate all our unused meal vouchers to them.

Holiday Party a Huge Success

110 people joined in the fun of the recent Ski Club Holiday Party. The Palacio Party Hall was a perfect setting and glowed with candlelight and subdued lighting from crystal chandeliers. Donated ski the delightful sound of the G-Notes. They can play anything! Club members "passed the hat" to coax George, Annette and Toby to continue playing for an extra half hour as no one wanted the fun to end!

Buffett hors d'oeuvres of a mashed potato bar with beef stroganoff sauce and toppings, shrimp cocktail, yummy cheeses and vegetables with dip got us started. Our sweet tooth was satisfied with fresh baked cook-boots had been painted red, decorated and turned in to shiny holiday centerpieces. Many went home as door prizes! A large red rocking chair served as a festive place to take holiday pictures of folks all dressed up in their finery.

The dance floor was never empty as the crowd enjoyed ies and a chocolate fountain. People were seen nibbling all evening long. Bartenders did a great job of keeping up with the needs of this thirsty crowd!

All those who had purchased advanced tickets had their names in a drawing for several door prizes. Games of Oklahoma Trivia and Christmas Song Scramble received an enthusiastic response as a friendly competition, with the winners being the first to get the most correct answers. Prizes were awarded to the winners. Josh Watt received a prize for having the most guests, five in number.

Perhaps someone can beat that next year! In all about 20 prizes were given away.
