President's Column

By Bruce Dawson

The Tulsa Ski Club would like to extend thanks to Phil Gelwick for a successful golf tournament held at Page Belcher's Old Page Course. Phil did a great job of organizing and coordinating the event, and those of us who played look forward to competing again in the next TSC golf tournament (results on page 10).

Speaking of doing a great job for the Ski Club, I would like to introduce another member of this year's Board of Directors. Kristin Huber, Editor of the Lift Line, is working hard compiling and coordinating the articles and advertisements that are presented to you each month in the Lift Line. Kristin is the go-to person for all of the Board Members who have information to place into the newsletter by the predetermined deadline. It helps that Kristin is an effective communicator and a person who takes her responsibilities with the Ski Club very seriously. She is also taken on the position as liaison with Dana Gray, who is been our website manager. Any updates from Trip Captains to Georgenia Van Tuyl, our Winter Trips Chair, will go directly to Kristin who will then forward the information to Dana for any modifications to the site.

Another Board Member, who will be coordinating his marketing efforts with Kristin, is Michael Messimore who is in charge of Advertising, Marketing and Promotions of the Club. Michael has taken a proactive approach to growing the membership of TSC through the efficient use of word-of-mouth advertising and certain cost-cutting measures. You may remember that last year, Michael was able to secure the great solution to our parking dilemma. He was able to work with his company, Horizon Mechanical, to provide a safe and centrally located parking area for embarkation of our bus trips, while saving members on their parking costs.

Speaking of saving money, we have to look no further than TSC Past President John Hill for more help in this area. John's latest position on the Board is that of Skimeister Editor. As editor, John will improve upon the format, layout and overall composition of this year's Skimeister. He will coordinate directly with Michael Messimore on filling up advertising space. As Michael increases ad revenue, John will reduce printing costs to the Club through advance set up for the printer.

As President, I am pleased to have Kristin, Michael and John as frontline representatives of the Club. Their teamwork, as well as the combined efforts of all of this year's Board, will take the Tulsa Ski Club to new heights. Of course as skiers, we are not afraid of heights. In fact, we cherish them. As members, we all play an active role in making the Tulsa Ski Club one of the best clubs in the country. Come with us as we rise to new heights this year for the best downhill ride yet. See you at the top!

France

By Bruce and Paula Dawson

On Saturday, April 19th, the final "Winter" Trip departed Tulsa for ten days in France. Our non-stop flight from Dallas to Paris on American was delayed slightly; however, retrieval of luggage and immigration was a breeze. Our group of thirty loaded our motorcoach and left for a brief tour of Paris a little after 11 am. Weather was cool and damp, but our spirits were bright as we visited famous, historical sites like the Eiffel Tower, Arc de Triomphe, the Louvre, and Notre Dame Cathedral. After our brief tour, our guide, Sophie, dropped us off at Chez Clément St. Michel for a four course luncheon at a quaint brasserie. Our prix fixe menu was well prepared, and it was over two hours before we completed our Crème Brûlée.

Our goal was not to spend more time in Paris, but to visit three distinct regions of France for three nights at each location. Our first region was in the Loire River Valley, 3½ hours southwest of Paris in a famous château region. We chose to spend our first three nights at the Château de Beaulieu (which means beautiful place). The sixteenth century castle featured well appointed rooms and beautiful grounds 6 km from the town of Tours. Four course gourmet dinners were prepared for us by Master Chef Guillaume each night in our own private dining hall. Sally Lawrence and Angie McCluggage were joined by Ann Zoller, Colleen Williams, and Jane Elbon. These ladies were on a mission to shop for bargains throughout the trip and also participate in many of the excursions that were offered.

We visited the Château de Chambord, Château de Cheverny, and Château de Blois, as well as the Royal City of Amboise where we went our separate ways for lunch. Our guide, Catherine, joined Robert and Roxi Vincent and Bruce and Paula Dawson for lunch in her favorite brasserie in town called Le Palais for real quiche and salad. Later that day, we all attended a wine tasting at a local cave in Vouvray. Rex and Judy Graves felt right at home on the wine tour and tasting due to their keen interest in fine wine (Judy built Rex his own wine cellar at home). Gary and Alma Buscombe were quite comfortable at the winery because they make and bottle their own wines at home.

The next day's activities included an inside visit of the Château de Chenonceau, the Manoir de Clos-Lucé (the last residence of Leonardo da Vinci), and a brief outside view of the Château D'Usse, the Enchanted Castle, which inspired Walt Disney's Sleeping Beauty Castle. Our final night at the Château de Beaulieu featured more delicious four course cuisine. Each night everyone tried to sit with different people to get to know each other better. For two nights after dinner, there was much singing. Even the waiter sang the French National Anthem for us. Our group sang Oklahoma, Kristi Briggs sang "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend" and Joan Kennedy sang "Bill Bailey Won't You Come Home".

Lots of duets and group singing to end each night on a happy note.

Our departure from the château region on the fourth morning took us through the town of Bourges, where we stopped for a brief visit of a gothic cathedral called the Cathedral of St. Etienne (St. Stephen). Built in the late 12th and 13th century, the cathedral featured exceptional stain-glassed windows. Throughout the trip, both Barbara Constantine and Sunni Wager were amused by Trip Captain Bruce Dawson's impression of Inspector Clouseau. ("Do you have a reuuhm for me?") We then traveled to the Haute-Savoie region near the French Alps for three nights in the town of Annecy, famous for Lac D'Annecy, one of the clearest, purist lakes in all of Europe.

Our hotel for the next three nights was modern and located in the town of Annecy. All 30 of us enjoyed a guided cruise on the lake the next morning before taking an adventurous walking tour along the foot bridges of the Gorge du Fier, an impressive canyon along the Fier river. The next morning offered beautiful panoramic views of the Alps and Mont Blanc en route to Thônes, as we toured a producer of Reblochon cheese, a delicious triple cream cheese similar to brie (unfortunately not available outside the region). After sampling the Reblochon cheese, we were ready for a walking tour of Annecy through the street markets of fresh fruit, vegetables, cheeses and other French specialties. Our guide, Simone, took us to several lunch spots along the river, some with views of picturesque Lac D'Annecy. One of the better dining options was at Les Voilles (the sails) inside the Imperial Palace Casino. Gary and Janet Orton were joined for dinner by Jim and Barbara Constantine, along with Homer and Sunni Wager, Wayne and Glenda Dougharty. Service was less than perfect, although the atmosphere and food was excellent. Gary and Alma Buscombe made the most of the beautiful day by taking a ride on a bicycle for two along side the lake.

Day 7, Saturday morning, featured a magnificent drive to the French Riviera on the Route Napoleon on winding mountain roads through quaint, small villages. Our final destination, Villefranche-sur-Mer, located between the city of Nice and the principality of Monaco, would be our stop for the last three nights. Our hotel, Le Versailles, was built into the cliffs overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. All rooms had water views of the Côte d'Azur including Cap Ferrat. After a good night's sleep and a delicious buffet breakfast the next morning, our guide Ingrid met us to begin our visit to Monaco and Monte Carlo. Our highly professional driver, René, displayed his driving skills as we wound through Monte Carlo for a tour of the Oceanographic Museum. Mother and daughter team of Nancy and Becky Brahm were like trip historians, having absorbed great knowledge of French history, music and other cultural aspects. They were a source of important information and a joy to be with. We continued on to the Grimaldi Palace and Monte Carlo Casino where former TSC President Jim Constantine, assisted by Jane Elbon, gambled and won and has the winning voucher to prove it as a souvenir. Further travel through Monaco included the Exotic Gardens where we had lunch overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. Then it was on to the village of Eze for a walking tour and shopping. The strenuous walk was no problem for JB and Monnie Cox, whose fitness and good attitude met every challenge they faced.

Speaking of challenge, as we were driving through Monte Carlo, we noticed that Nadal and Federer were competing in the finals of the Monte Carlo Tennis Championship, where Tiger Woods, recouping from knee surgery, was rooting for his good friend, Roger Federer. Our final stop for the day featured a famous parfumerie called Fragonard. The tour began with a test of our noses as we identified various scents. All of the ladies were pleased to sample the various perfume sticks, as they decided which ones smelled the best for them. This night's dinner for a number of us featured a restaurant on the water called La Mère Germaine, specializing in seafood. Rex and Judy Graves, Joan Kennedy, Gary and Alma Buscombe, Bruce and Paula Dawson and Robert and Roxi Vincent enjoyed a wonderful dinner with wine and a special visit from Remy, a storied and mature restaurant manager. Rémy Blouin gave all of us a new book about the restaurant which featured historic personalities such as Ronald Reagan, Brigitte Bardot, Jack Nicholson, Charlie Chaplin, Boris Yeltsin, Lauren Bacall, Liza Minnelli and Roger Moore. We felt like celebrities ourselves.

Our last full day excursion involved a drive to St. Raphael for a boat trip to the port of St. Tropez. This famous seaside town became a haven for impressionistic painters like Matisse and a well established hangout for bohemians after World War I. Many people know of St. Tropez for the Brigitte Bardot film "And God Created Woman". While Ron Van Tuyl was searching for the perfect cigar, Georgenia Van Tuyl joined Bruce and Paula Dawson for lunch at La Sorelle, an outdoor café, which overlooked some large yachts in the marina. Returning to our hotel, Le Versailles, we traveled a scenic route along the Mediterranean (with many picturesque photo ops) by the city of Cannes (film festival) to the city of Nice.

Our final night was made particularly special due to the birthday celebration of Morrell Briggs. His wife Kristi had gone to great lengths to provide us with a delicious prix fixe menu of pork tenderloin and Salade Nicoise and a special birthday cake for dessert replete with several large sparklers. The evening's entertainment was headlined by Emcee Sunni Wager who introduced Barbara Constantine, Angie McCluggage, Roxi Vincent and Joan Kennedy singing "You Are My Sunshine" (with a twist). Judy Graves did a convincing impression of Marilyn Monroe singing "Happy Birthday" to Morrell.

All of us regretted leaving this most beautiful region of France, as we made our way to the airport in Nice. So many memories, so much good food and wine; how would we ever experience this French way of life again?

The answer was to have a post France trip after-party at the home of Rex and Judy Graves (remember the wine cellar?). Most of our group was able to attend where we reviewed a CD-ROM slideshow presentation (with music from the Pink Panther) made from many of the photos taken and assembled by Gary Buscombe. Rex and Judy prepared several grilled meats and side dishes accompanied by some 27 bottles of wine. Everyone enjoyed looking at the various France trip scrapbooks and discussing what a wonderful time we all experienced together.

MS 150 Rest Stop

Recruiting is now underway for volunteers for the Ski Club MS 150 rest stop on the weekend of September 13-14. As a philanthropic club this is one of many ways we give time to our community. Working a rest stop helps keep cyclists safe as they ride 150 miles raising money for the Multiple Sclerosis Association, and it's also a great deal of fun! Our group is known by all the cyclists, and we have earned the "Best Rest Stop" award several years in a row. We're known as the Cycle S.L.U.T.S. (sexy ladies under t-shirts) and have become masters at entertaining and pampering the cyclists. The club no longer fields a cycling team but has several members who do the ride to raise money for MS. There will be a new route this year overnighting in Pryor. Anyone willing to volunteer can call Barb at 369-2917 or email her at bdelozier2@cox.net. She will provide more information as it becomes available, but asks people to mark their calendars.
