President's Column

By Bruce Dawson

As the cold fronts come in and we are dipping down into the 30's at night, I couldn't help but think about early snows in the Rocky Mountains. This ski season is predicted to be as good as last year when the snow was abundant. Now is the time to double check your calendar and set aside some vacation dollars for a great trip with the Club.

By the time you read this, the Keystone Holiday Trip should be full. Snowmass in early January has openings, as well as all of our fly out trips, Sun Valley, Whistler and Lake Tahoe. As you know, all of our trips require early deposits by our Club. So in order to continue to make these trips available, we need the participation levels to increase through the Fall. Be sure to contact a Trip Captain to let him/her know of your plans to join us. 1/3 of the trip cost is required as a deposit to hold your space. So far, we still have some room on Copper Mountain, which is arguably the best value trip all year. Crested Butte and Taos are sold out. Also, the trip to Northern Italy has sold out.

Those of us who were able to attend the Amish Dinner with the Ski Club really had a delicious dinner together. Fred and Gertie Yoder put out an excellent menu and everyone ate their fill.

In lieu of the Ski Swap for the November meeting this year, we are having a Tulsa Ski Club Yard Sale on Saturday, November 8th. This is a great opportunity to rid yourself of unwanted items that others might see as treasure. Proceeds from the yard sale will go to the Ski Club to offset Winter Trip costs. Please contact Anita Greiner at 492-7108 for any questions and to arrange a drop off or pick up of your donated items. We will also have a bake sale included with the yard sale.

See you at the Yard Sale, November 8th and at the General Meeting on November 11th.

Crested Butte

Cost: $438

4 ski days

3 nights at The Chateau

4 days of skiing at Crested Butte. It's a great mountain with a variety of terrain. The green slopes are fun, and the left side of the mountain features some very challenging double-black diamond terrain. Lots of great restaurants and entertainment both at the mountain base and in town.

Pyramid-shaped Mt. Crested Butte looks over Crested Butte, the last of the Colorado hippie ski towns. The lower front of the mountain is mostly beginner and intermediate terrain, while the cliff riddles bowls and faces on the back side, known as the North Face, test even the most talented skiers. The pretty Victorian mining town has excellent shopping and dining.

Good Eats in Chouteau

By Chuck Harrington

On Saturday, October 18th, about 20 Tulsa Ski Club members and guests gathered near Chouteau, Oklahoma for a "down home" Amish dinner at Fred and Gerti Yoder's Kountry Kitchen. Bruce and Paula Dawson made all the arrangements and provided directions. Even though a couple of us made an unplanned scenic tour of western Mayes County, everyone eventually found the Kountry Kitchen in time for every course. The menu was tasty and bountiful and included turkey with dressing, roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, German noodles, coleslaw, green beans and a date pudding that was absolutely wonderful. Apple and pumpkin pies rounded out the dinner fare, as well as our stomachs. After dinner, there were pies and jams and various other homemade goodies available for purchase from the Amish kitchens. Several club members took advantage of this, including Dottie Millis who purchased an apple pie, much to Bill's delight. Camaraderie and good conversations over homemade food added to the pleasantness of the evening. Enjoying the dinner were myself, Kelley Phillips and her mom, Ron and Terri Lewis with both Ron's mom and Terri's mom, Jay and Kathy Menger and their two children, and Gary and Debbie Keener who were guests of Bruce and Paula.

Lake Cruising with Ski Club

By Chuck Harrington

On September 20th, as the western sun slowly slipped toward the horizon, 12 Tulsa Ski Club members and guests boarded the Cherokee Queen paddle wheeler in Grove for a memorable dinner cruise on the Grand Lake of the Cherokees. The weather cooperated with a perfect Oklahoma clear-sky evening. As we churned away from the dock, there was tea and water as well as a cash bar for pre-dinner socializing. Ron and Terri Lewis and Ron's mom Irene Gray relaxed on the interior lower deck and watched shoreline slowly slip by. No sooner had we passed a small island that was hosting a white bird convention, than the crew began serving a sumptuous prime rib dinner with baked potato, vegetables, salad and cobbler for desert. Kathi Cordell and Dan Bolt both agreed that the quality of the meal was excellent and the atmosphere unsurpassed for relaxing. In fact, all the ski club cruisers seemed very pleased with the quality of the meal. After dinner, everyone headed to the outer decks to visit, relax, watch the sun disappear behind Shangri-La resort, and just enjoy the awesome evening. Edie Hammons, Shirley Crane and their friend Susan Langston agreed that "it didn't get much better than this". Wendell Newhouse and Becky, as well as Scott Jones and yours truly, sat on deck, enjoyed the balmy evening, and discussed a wide variety of topics. It was generally agreed by all that were onboard that evening that there is nothing like the relaxing mood of a sunset dinner cruise.
